Residential on 0.10 Acres

MOREY BEACH, ST PETE BEACH, FL

This IS what Pass A Grille is all about; the history, the architecture, the lifestyle and most definitely the Beach! This Landmark property was the early one room schoolhouse from 1915 to 1927, the Pass A Grille Church held services here and the Pass A Grille Womans Club held meetings and socials before it was repurposed into the quintessential residential home it is today. The Main house enjoys a welcoming sunlit porch, soaring ceilings, heart of pine floors, custom cherry cabinets soapstone integrated sink/counter space, glass front sub Zero refrigerator, 6 burner gas stove with stainless steel hood, spacious main bath with separate tub and shower and laundry room. The exterior of the home is made from rusticated "dimple" block construction, metal roof, Pella windows and sliding doors leading to a side yard private patio area. Between the main home and the separate metered Guest house is an expansive bricked courtyard with plenty of space for outdoor entertaining or to have a pool/spa. Onsite parking with alley access to the rear of the completely fenced in enclave. This property is so perfectly located directly across from the park and shuffleboard courts, steps to the white sandy beaches to the west, to the fishing piers to the east and to all the quaint shops and restaurants along Historic 8th Ave. This is a walking, biking, golf cart community and so much to see and do without needing a car. 15 mins to downtown St Petersburg to enjoy the world renowned museums, trendy restaurants or to catch a Rays or Rowdies game. Tampa Int'l Airport is just 35 mins away, making business or personal travel a breeze. Check out the virtual tour and fall in love with this property and this unique slice of Paradise.
